Grover Cleveland declares he will never again be a candidate for nomination for President.Alachua county furnishes only two State candidates, and none for the United States Senate or Congress. We're modest.Even after he has tried picking a wife, says the Tampa Tribune, a man is fool enough to try to pick winners in a horse race.A gentleman from Levy county says Levy is a Stockton county, but he thinks Tallahassee and Jennings may get a few scattering votes there.C. H. Crisman, Micanopy, and E. B. Godwin, High Springs, are authorized to take subscriptions and collect for THE STAR. See them about it.A Michigan paper, says the Barrow Courier-Informant, is called the Lyre. There may be some of the same kind in Florida, but it means a fight if you call 'em that.Mr. S. R. Hudson, editor and manager of that bright paper, the Orlando Sentinel Reporter spent yesterday in the city, and favored THE STAR office with an agreeable visit.The esteemed Pensacola News has about quit abusing THE GAINES-VILLE STAR, and now comes forward with the truth as follows:
"THE GAINESVILLE STAR is fighting the bowl evil."There is no doubt about the Times-Union being a vote maker. Its attempt to belittle and misrepresent Stockton has made votes for that gentleman, and now it is making votes for Barrs in the same way."Dear Governor," says the De-Funiak Breeze, "has that $96,000 been collected as back taxes from the Seaboard Air Line? If not, why not? You are the executive officer of the state are you not?"Hunters in Florida should be very careful about shooting in the woods during a political campaign; i. e., if they have any regard for the safety of candidates. It would be an awful thing to shoot a deer and kill two or three candidatesWill Brother Straub, of the St.
Petersburg Times, tell us if that lady who was shown at the bottom of last Saturday's cartoon in the Times got to the fire before it was extinguished, or did she arrive on the scene too late to be of any service?Some people can't understand why the little town of Brooksville is bringing out so many candidates.
It is rather difficult to understand, especially when we consider the fact that there is not the slightest chance for any of them to be nominated.Whatever may be said in favor of Hon. R. W. Davis' candidacy for the governorship, it cannot be successfully denied that among his earnest supporters are some upon whom the taxpayers and voters of Florida must of necessity look with suspicionBecause J. M. Barrs, as city attorney of Jacksonville, has forced wealth to bear something like its just proportion of taxes, he will lose a few of the wealthier people's votes; but the men who own but little and have always been compelled to pay taxes on what they possessed, will vote for J. M. Barrs.We dislike to disappoint any of our readers, but those who have recently subscribed for THE STAR because as they put it, "We know THE STAR will publish the Sheets-Holloway speeches in full," can not expect us to publish the speeches "in full" since it is generally admitted that the speeches here last Friday night would have filled at least twenty columns of a seven-column paper.

TILLMAN AND THE BIBLE.

Jim Tillman, ex-Lieutenant Governor of South Carolina, and one of that State's most prominent man killers, has taken exceptions to a sermon that was preached a few Sundays ago by the Rev. W. L.
Githens, of Beauford, S. C. The preacher, it appears, said some uncomplimentary things concerning Mr. Tillman, who has written to him as follows:I notice in The State of today what purports to be an excerpt from a sermon delivered by you on last Sunday, your text being from the twenty first chapter, eighteenth verse, of the Gospel of St. Matthew.
Will you take as your text for the next Sabbath the seventh chapter, second and third verses, of the same Gospel? You are much deceived if you, like others of your thinking, feel that you represent one-quarter of the Christian ministry of this State, for I have letters to prove the contrary. I heartily commend to your devout study also the fifth verse of the afore-mentioned chapter of St. Matthew. Your congregation might also read the fifth verse.The verses referred to read thus:
With what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged; and with what measure ye mete it shall be measured to you again.
And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravaging wolves.It is encouraging to see that Mr.
Tillman has put up his gun and adopted the Bible as a weapon of defense. Let him go on studying Matthew, and after finishing with that book it may profit him to look through Luke, Mark, John and the others of the New Testament. Also he might find it well to study the seventh verse of the fifth chapter of Second Kings, and there is something in Exodus, twentieth chapter and thirteenth verse, that may interest him.— Jacksonville Metropolis.A case in which a man was literally "talked to death" is reported from LaCrosse, Wis. Carl Borne-quist, a tailor, was a jurymen.
The case on trial was one in which the testimony, besides being very dry, embraced a mass of figures.
The lawyers were ex-Senator Vilas and Attorney John Olin. The case dragged along for two weeks, during every day of which time the lawyers made long speeches and quoted yards of figures to sustain their positions. Bornequist thought he had to remember all of the figures, and became pale, haggard and nervous. A day or two ago he told a friend that something had snapped in his head, whereupon he went off and committed suicide.— Savannah News.Friday's Metropolis showed Jno.
N. C. Stockton driving his mule team through the country with a load of his famous "Punta Gorda speeches." The wagon was labeled "Anti-Corporation Turnout," and a locomotive and train of cars were shown quitting the track and being wrecked at the appearance of Stockton and his team who were crossing the track at a sharp curve.
The mules seemed a little excited but Mr. Stockton (represented as a Florida cracker) looking contented and happy. The cartoon was evidently intended to show how the corporations dread to come in contact with Mr. Stockton. The picture was very suggestive of existing conditions, and will make votes for Stockton.An Ocala paper charges that a man named Jewel was fined in that city $3 for selling $5 worth of fruit on Sunday. It was a ridiculous thing to do, but a very mild outrage as compared to some of the high-handed proceedings in this city where poor people have been arrested and fined $25 for a similar offense.—Pensacola News.All newspapers should advocate the enforcement or repeal of all laws. While laws against Sunday selling exist, and the violators of them are not punished, the officials are guilty of perjury. Those who don't like Sunday laws have a right to denounce such laws, but they have no right to object to the enforcement of such laws.The race for U. S. Senator, says the Live Oak Democrat, is between Stockton and Tallahassee. Jennings is not in the race. Stockton will carry Jennings' own county, Hernando, so reports say, and the adjoining counties, Citrus, Pasco and Suwannee will give Jennings a very light vote—hardly enough to count.After hearing a joint debate for one and the same office, it is sometimes amusing to hear the people express opinions and pass judgment. Some will declare one man will be an easy winner, while others affirm he won't be in it at all, and both sides may be equally earnest and honest. The fact is many men's desires have much to do with their forming opinions. It is not always an easy matter for a man to judge impartially between the man he favors and the man he don't favor.But few of Taylor's cartoons in the Times-Union are as pointed as were those he produced for the Metropolis, while Fallon, the Metropolis' new cartoonist, is improving daily. It has been suggested by readers of both papers in this city that Mr. Taylor is trying to cartoon things differently to the way he sees them.Gainesville people regret very much that on account of the length of time occupied by Sheets and Holloway at the speaking Friday night, the candidates for Governor and Congress could do but little more than thank the people for their presence and promise to come again. The candidates promised to come amongst us again.

COUNTY TEACHERS.

Association in Session Here Thursday, Friday and Saturday.The Alachua County Teachers' Association convened in the auditorium of the Gainesville Graded and High School Thursday afternoon, and was in session Friday, and Saturday morning. The meetings were well attended by teachers and other friends of education, and a number of interesting and instructive speeches were made and papers read.The first meeting was opened by prayer by Rev. T. P. Hay, and then speakers were introduced by Chairman J. H. O'Leary, and responded. Address of welcome, Hon. J. M. Rivers; response, Prof.
O. M. Tillman. Prof. T. P. McBeath, J. H. Pulks and others delivered addresses, and the convention was treated to some excellent music.The other sessions—of which we got no report—are said to have been well attended, interesting and beneficial, and the association adjourned Saturday, and is remembered by those who attended as a pleasant and profitable educational meeting.

Resolutions.

The following resolutions were passed by the Association: Whereas, we, the teachers of Alachua county, in association assembled, have received such hearty welcome from the people of Gainesville; therefore be it Resolved, That we assure them of our appreciation of their hospitality; but we regret that our meetings were not so well attended as usual by the citizens of Gainesville.Be it further resolved, That we extend to J. M. Rivers our appreciation for his kind words of welcome; to the faculty of the Gainesville High School for their courtesies; to the teachers who so kindly responded to their names on the program with valuable papers; to Col.
J. M. Guillemin and the other members of the faculty of the East Florida Seminary for their highly instructive lectures; to the musicians for the fine selections of music which interspersed our program, and to the President for the graceful and impartial manner in which he has presided over the meetings of the Association.
Be it resolved further, That a copy of these resolutions be handed to each of the papers of this city for publication, and that they be spread upon the journal of this Association.J. A. ORMOND,

To the Voters of Alachua County: I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Sheriff, subject to the action of the next Democratic primary.
If elected, I promise to discharge the duties of the office to the very best of my ability, and I solicit the support of all voters at the polls.
Respectfully,
W. C. HAGUE.

HAIR GROWER.

Brooklyn, N. Y., April 21, '99.
Dr. S. B. Giddings,
Dear Sir:—Will you kindly inform me by return mail if you can send your 50c. bottle of Hair Grower the Unparalleled (Trade Mark) and if so I will send you a postal note for the same. Please inform me the amount of postage if it can be mailed.When in Florida the winter of 1897 and '98 I used five bottles of the twenty-five cent size and produced a nice growth of hair where it had been entirely bald for fifteen years, and now I would like to try it once more if I can get it.
Yours truly,
J. W. HAYNES.59 Hicks St.

Unparalleled Hair Grower, and as far as he knows no one had influenced him to
